Note.—All bidders are requested to extend the amount of their bids for each article, and exhibit the total amount of each bid.

The periods and quantities of each delivery at those posts where they are not specified, will be, one-fourth lat June, 1st September, 1st December, 1850, and 1st March, 1851.

The hogs of which the pork is packed to be fattened on corn, and each hog to weigh not less than two hundred pounds, excluding the feet, legs, cars, and snout. Side pieces may be substituted for the hams. The pork is to be first salted with Turk's Island salt, and then carefully packed with the same article, in pieces not exceeding eight pounds each.

When the packing has been completed, the contractor must furnish to this office a certificate from the packer that the pork has been so salted and packed. The pork is to be contained in seasoned heart of white oak barrels, full hooped; the beans and salt in barrels, and the soap and candles in strong boxes, of convenient size for transportation.

Salt will only be received by measurement of thirty-two quarts to the bushel. The candles to have cotton wicks. The provisions for St. Peter's by the 1st June, 1850. A failure in this particular will be considered a breach of contract, and the Department will be authorized to purchase to supply these posts. The provisions will be inspected at the time and place of delivery, and all expenses to be paid by contractors until they are deposited at such store-houses as may be designated by the agents of the Department. The Commissary General reserves the privilege of increasing or reducing the quantities, or of dispensing with any or all articles required at any post, at any time before entering into contract; and also of increasing or reducing the quantities of each delivery one-third subsequent to contract, on giving sixty days previous notice.

Bidders, not herefore contractors, are required to accompany their proposals with evidence of their litting and the proposals with evidence of their

REVUE DES DEUX MONDES. Nouvelle Period avec la Collaboration des Sommites Litteraires et Scientifiques, de la France et des pays Etrangers. Published on the first and fitteenth of every month. Each number contains 176 pages, Svo., at $12 50

Published on the first and fifteenth of every month. Each number contains 176 pages, Svo., at $12 50 per annum.

 The Revue des Deux Mondes has been formed for the purpose of establishing an intercourse in the intellectual pursuits the most followed between distinguished men of Europe and America. It is proposed in this collection to give a prominent place to the affairs of the American Union, to the labors of its politicians, and to the Literary and Scientific publications of its Authors. The Revue des Deux Mondes now makes a public appeal to American Authors and Editors, by sending to it, through Mr. Putnam, of New York, a copy of each of their publications. The Revue is in a better position than any other organ in Europe to serve as an intellectual link between the Old and the New World, which has as Editors and Contributors the most eminent political, scientific, and literary men of France. Many of its contributors have visited North and South America, and it still counts among them many of the Diplomatic and Consular Corps. Each number of the Revue, in addition to its articles signed by the first names of France, contains, under the title of "Chronique de la Quinzaine," a historical summary of the principal events of the political world, which will certainly be, for the American, the most faithful picture of the European movements.

THE KNICKERBOCKER MAGAZINE.

THE KNICKERBOCKER MAGAZINE.

Edited by Lewis Gaylord Clark.

THIS is pronounced, by the press of America and England, the best magazine in America. It has nearly reached its thirty-fourth volume, and in its list of upward of a hundred contributors are found the names of every distinguished writer, male and female, in America, with several equally prominent of Great Britain, Turkey, Sweden, etc. A new volume, containing a superb engraving, a portrait of the editor engraved by Cheney, from a painting by Elliott, will commence on the first day of July, 1849. The following notices of the Knickerbocker are from the American and English press, and from American and British writers of distinction.

'The Knickerbocker.—The last number of this venerable and widely-popular periodical appears upon entirely new and beautiful type, in all its departments; and in its rich and diversified contents, continues to vindicate its reputation as the most agreeable and entertaining Magazine published in the United States. When we first started the old 'New Yorker,' our friend Clark had preceded us as Editor of the Knickerbocker about a twelvemonth: it has now reached an age greatly beyond that of any American Monthly; a fact which literally 'speaks volumes' in praise of the manner in which the work has been conducted. No number of the K. has ever been issued under Clark's supervision that did not bear indubitable evidence of editorial care, and anxious thought, and well-directed labor enstamped upon its pages. We have known no monthly, of this country or Europe, so thoroughly edited, in the strictest sense of the term.'—New York Daily Tribune.

'Mathematicians tell us of certain curves called.'

York Daily Tribune.
'MATHEMATICIANS tell us of certain curves called 'MATHEMATICIANS tell us of certain curves called asymptotes, whose peculiarity is always to approach each other, and yet, even when infinitely extended, never to intersect. The KNICKEBBOCKEB, which has reached an age for a Magazine much greater than a hundred years for a man, and only to be attained by a more marvellous miracle, has perpetually approached the highest possible point of interest and excellence; and yet it seems to have an excelsior, for each number seems better than that which went before. How it is done our friend CLARE may understand—but it is a sealed mystery to us. There is no publication in the United States that has so attractive or popular a feature as the Editor's table of the KNICKERBOCKER.'—New York Courier and Enquirer.

'We regard it as the very best work of its kind in the Union.'—St. Alban's (Va.) Journal.

'Its contents are as invariably good as its appearance is punctual.'—WILLIAM CULLEN BRYANT, in the New York Evening Post.

'Its articles are worthy of BLACKWOOD'S palmiest days. The Editor's Table is in Mr. CLARK'S happiest vein: varied and racy in a remarkable degree.'

HE ARTICLES ARE WORTHY OF BLACKWOOD'S PAIMIEST days. The Editor's Table is in Mr. CLARK'S happiest vein; varied and racy in a remarkable degree.'—New York Commercial Advertiser.

'The Knickerbocker seems to increase in attraction as it advances in age. It exhibits a monthly variety of contributions unsurpassed in number or ability.'—National Intelligencer.

'The Knickerbocker is one of the most valuable maggzines of the day, and outstrips all competition in the higher walks of lierature.'—Albany Argus.

'The Editor's Table alone is worth the price of the work. It is not a periodical to be lightly glanced over and thrown by, but it forms a library book to save and re-read. A set of the Knickerbocker, bound up in volumes, on the shelves of one of our popular libraries, is more consulted (so the librarian has often told us) than any other similar work.'—Boston Daily Transcript.

President Everett, of Harford College, late Minister to England.—I peruse the Knickerbocker with high gratification. It seems to me to be of an order of merit quite above the average of the periodicals of this class, English or American.'

Hon. J. K. Paulding, late Secretary of the Navy.—

'The manner in which the Knickerbocker is conducted, and the great merit of its contributors, place it in the highest rank of periodicals.'

Prof. Longfellow, Cambridge University.—'The Knickerbocker stands high in this quarter. It is superior to most of the English magazines, and well deserves its large list of subscribers.''

Hon. Robert M. Charlon, Gergia.—'The Knickerbocker is a work which requires no puffing; and I shall always feel that I am conferring a favor on those to whom I recommend it.'

The London Examiner.—'This very clever Magazine is the pleasantest periodical in the United States. Its articles, which are numerous and short, various and interesting, are well worthy of imitation by our Magazines on this side of the Atlantic.'

London Morning Cheonicle.—'Judging from the numbers before us, we are inclined to consider LONDON MORNING CHRONICLE .- Judging from the numbers before us, we are inclined to consider this the best of all the American literary periodicals. Its contents are highly interesting, instructive, and amusing.'

The London Literary Gazette.—'The taste and talent which the KNICKESSOCKES displays are highly creditable to American writers, and very agreeable for English readers.' LONDON METROPOLITAN MONTHLY MAGAZINE.—
We have read several numbers of this talented periodical, and rejoiced in them. They would do riodical, and reposed in them. They would do credit to any scatte of civilization to which humanity has yet arrived.'

LONDON ATHENEUM.—'From a very clever Monthly Magazine, 'The KNICKERBOCKER.' of New York, we copy the following spirited story,' etc.

SIR EDWARD BULWER LYTTON.—'THE KNICKER-Pamphlets containing the rates of premium, prospectus, examples, names of Agents, medical examiners, &c., can be had free of charge on application at 71 Wall street, and of agents.

Part of the capital is permanently invested in the United States, in the names of three of the local directors, as trustees—available always to the assured in cases of disputed claims (should any such arise) or otherwise.

Thirty days are allowed, after each payment of premium becomes due, without forfeiture of policy.

Rev. Dr. Dick Scotland.—'The Knicker-Bocker is the best American periodical I have yet seen. I take pleasure in enclosing you an article which was penned expressly for your work.'

Charles Dickers, esq.—'I read the Knicker-Bocker is the best American periodical I have yet seen. I take pleasure in enclosing you an article which was penned expressly for your work.'

Charles Dickers, esq.—'I read the Knicker-Bocker with very great pleasure: it is indeed a most various and entertaining periodical. It affords me pleasure to contribute to the pages of a work which numbers among its regular correspondents which was penned expressly for your work.'

Charles Dickers is the best American periodical in the pleasure in enclosing your an article which was penned expressly for your work.'

Rev. Dr. Dick Scotland .- I have read a good many of the articles in the few numbers of the KNICKERBOCKER which you sent me, and find them KNICKERBOCKER WHICH you sent me, and mu them to possess great merit. Some of its papers, it is true, were too light for my serious turn of mind; yet the whole appears well calculated to gratify the tastes of the mass of readers.'

Capt. F. MARRATT.—'You make an excellent Magazine—spirited, various, and original. I hope my 'Moonshine' will reflect no discredit upon the good company in which it will find itself." Agents wanted for the Knickerbocker Magazine.
